

(b) Any person, firm, corporation or association desiring a license for the sale of beverages authorized to be sold under this Act shall file with said Board an application therefor in such form as the Board may prescribe. The application shall designate the kind of license desired and shall contain the following information: First, the name and residence of the applicant or applicants, and that he or they have been residents of Prince George's County for at least one year. Second, the particular place for which a license is desired, designating the same by street and number if practicable, if not, by such other apt description as definitely locates it. Third, the name of the owner of the premises upon which the business to be licensed is to be carried on. Fourth, a statement that the applicant or applicants are citizens of the United States and not less than twenty-one years of age, and that such applicant or applicants have never been convicted of a felony, or been adjudged guilty of violating the laws for the prevention of gambling in Prince George's County. Fifth, in the case of a corporation or an association desiring a license, the application shall state, in addition to the other information required by this section, the names of the officers, stockholders and/or members of said corporation or association, that they are citizens of the United States, not less than twenty-one years of age, have never been convicted of a felony, or been adjudged guilty of violating the laws for the prevention of gambling in Prince George's County. Sixth, that he, it or they intend to carry on and will conduct the business authorized by the license for himself, itself or themselves and not as an agent or agents for any other person, corporation or association if said license is granted. Seventh, that the applicant or applicants intend to superintend in person the management of the business. Eighth, this application must be verified by the affidavit of the petitioner or petitioners made before a Notary Public or other person duly authorized by law to administer oaths. If any false statement is made in any part of said application, the applicant or applicants shall be deemed guilty of perjury, and upon conviction thereof the license shall be revoked and the applicant or applicants subjected to the penalties provided by law at that time. Before the license is issued, the Board shall satisfy themselves of the moral character and financial responsibility of the applicant or applicants, appropriateness of the place where such licensed business is to be conducted, taking into consideration the number of such licenses already issued, and gen-
